

Society for Reproductive and Infant Psychology

35th Annual SRIP Conference Programme

The East Midlands Conference Centre, University of Nottingham
14th – 15th September 2015

Sunday 13th September 2015
14:00 onwards	Check in at The Orchard Hotel
15:30–17:00	SRIP committee meeting for committee members only	Worcester Meeting Room The Orchard Hotel
17:00–18.00	SRIP Editorial Board Meeting for members only	Worcester Meeting Room The Orchard Hotel
17:30 onwards	Optional reception at the Orchard Hotel Library	Meet at the Orchard Hotel Library

Monday 14 th September 2015			Speaker/Authors
08:30–09:30	Conference registration and coffee	Administration team
09:30–09:35	Welcome	Prof. Julie Jomeen Chair of SRIP
09:35–09:45	Opening Address	Prof. Patrick Callaghan, School of Health Sciences, University of Nottingham
09:45–10:35	Keynote Lecture: Technology and perinatal depression		Prof. Cindy-Lee Dennis
10:35–11:00	Refreshments
11:00–12:20	Session 1 Theme: Perinatal interventions		Chair: Dr Maggie Redshaw
	Paper 1: A pilot randomised controlled trial of the use of video interaction guidance with preterm babies		Prof. Jane Barlow
	Paper 2: Using expressive writing as an intervention to improve postnatal wellbeing		Dr Susan Thompson
	Paper 3: Prevention of postnatal depression: a meta-analysis of interventions to prevent postnatal depression		Dr Jane Morrell
	Paper 4: Mums4Mums: A pilot RCT of the clinical and cost-effectiveness of telephone peer support for postnatal depression		Sukhdev Sembi
12:20–13:20	Lunch
13:20–14:20	Session 2 Theme: Antenatal depression	Chair: Prof. Colin Martin	Session 3 Theme: Partners	Chair: Dr Zoe Darwin
	Paper 5: Persistence of maternal depression episodes in the five years after childbirth among women with antenatal and postnatal depression	Dr Ruth Baker	Paper 8: Prenatal mind-mindedness: concordance between partners and associations with depression	Sarah Foley
	Paper 6: Obesity, socio-economic status and antenatal depression	Emma Molyneaux	Paper 9: Women's emotional well-being during pregnancy and after childbirth in rural Sindh, Pakistan: An exploratory qualitative study	Shaneela Khowaja
	Paper 7: The BaBY PaNDA Study: A Perinatal Depression Diagnostic Accuracy Study	Dr Liz Littlewood	Paper 10: Postnatal depressive symptoms in fathers and associations with father's parenting: Findings from the Millennium Cohort Study	Dr Selina Nath

14:25–15:05	Session 4 Theme: Fertility choices and experiences	Chair: Prof. Olga van den Akker	Session 5 Theme: Loss and bereavement	Chair: Dr Franziska Wadepful
	Paper 11: Participants' Recommendations for Cross Border Reproductive Services (CBRS)	Steve Lui	Paper 13: Contact with the baby after stillbirth and parental mental health and wellbeing: a systematic review	Julie Hennegan
	Paper 12: A qualitative analysis of young adults beliefs about parenting and remaining childfree	Sarah Sangster & Kirstian Gibson	Paper 14: The Differential Impact of Social Perspective on Women and Men's Endorsement of Abortion	Linzi Williamson
15:05–15:30	Refreshments
15:30–16:30	Session 6 Theme: Postnatal mental health	Chair: Prof. Fiona Alderdice	Session 7 Theme: Pregnancy preparation	Chair: Lesley Daniels
	Paper 15: An exploration of factors which influence maternal self-efficacy (MSE) in primiparous women in China during the initial postnatal period – A longitudinal study	Xujuan Zheng	Paper 18: What are the key functions of antenatal preparation: women's perspectives in pregnancy	Prof. Pauline Slade
	Paper 16: The risk of postpartum severe mental illness in UK primary and secondary care	Dr Lu Ban	Paper 19: Risk perception and decision making in women with high risk pregnancies	Suzanne Lee
	Paper 17: Perinatal depression and child development: exploring the economic consequences from a South London cohort	Annette Bauer
16:30–17:30	Poster viewing (n=24 poster spaces)
19:00 onwards	Transport to Conference dinner in The Great Hall, Wollaton Hall; 19.30 Canapés; 20.00 Conference dinner

Tuesday 15 th September 2015				Speakers/Authors
08:30–09:00	Registration and refreshments
09:00–10:20	Session 8 Theme: Maternal sensitivity and mother-infant interactions	Chair: Dr Jane Iles	Session 9 Theme: Birth	Chair: Lesley Daniels
	Paper 21: Cognitive biases in processing infant emotion by women with depression, anxiety and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) in Pregnancy or after birth: A Systematic Review	Rebecca Webb	Paper 25: “It’s all my fault this happened”: Birth choices, outcomes, and moral responsibility	Melanie Bayly
	Paper 22: The importance of eyes: a longitudinal study on sighted infants of blind parents	Natasa Ganea	Paper 26: Psychosocial differences in birth planning: A cross sectional survey	Dr Liane Hayes
	Paper 23: The effect of cleft lip and palate on maternal gaze patterns during early interactions, and their role in maternal responses to early communicative behaviours	Dr Leonardo De Pascalis	Paper 27: Development and validation of the Greek version of the birth satisfaction scale (G-BSS)	Prof. Colin Martin
	Paper 24: The normalisation of disrupted attentional processing of infant distress in depressed pregnant women following Cognitive Behavioural therapy	Rebecca Pearson	Paper 28: Antenatal depression, preeclampsia and small for gestational age delivery among overweight and obese women	Emma Molyneaux
10:20-10:45	Refreshments
10:45-12:25	Session 10 Theme: Psychological aspects of perinatal loss			Chair: Prof. Julie Jomeen
	Paper 29: Meaning making and adjustment following early pregnancy loss			Dr Ana Nikčević
	Paper 30: Cognitive predictors and risk factors of maternal posttraumatic stress disorder following stillbirth: a longitudinal study			Dr Antje Horsch
	Paper 31: Exploring parents’ continuing bonds with their baby following stillbirth			Emma Jones
	Paper 32: Mothers’ experience of contact with their stillborn infant			Kirsty Ryninks
	Paper 33: Impact of care practices on parental mental health following stillbirth			Dr Kirstie McKenzie-McHarg

12:25-13:00	AGM – All SRIP members invited
12:25-13:30	Lunch, poster viewing and final vote (n=24 poster spaces)
13:30-14:15	SRIP Lecture: Effects of maternal postnatal depression on child development, and evidence for the benefits of intervention	Prof. Lynne Murray
14:15-14:25	Presentation of Poster Prize	Chair: Prof. Julie Jomeen
14:25-15:25	Paper 34: Doctoral Prize Winner
	Paper 35: Runner-up Doctoral Prize Winner
	Paper 36: Masters Prize Winner
15:25-15:40	Refreshments
15:40-16:30	Session 11 Theme: Antenatal interventions	Chair: Ms Kerry Evans
	Paper 37: Depression: a trial of antenatal guided self-help for women (DAWN)	Emily Bell
	Paper 38: A systematic review of non-pharmacological interventions to reduce stress in pregnant women	Kyrsten Corbijn van Willenswaard
	Paper 39: Mothers accounts of the impact on emotional wellbeing of organised peer support in pregnancy and early parenthood: a qualitative study	Jenny McLeish
	Paper 40: A systematic review of computer- and internet-based psychotherapy interventions for perinatal mental health	Prof. Susan Ayers
16:30-16:45	SRIP 2016: Leeds Conference	Lesley Daniels and Dr Zoe Darwin
16:45-17:00	SRIP 2015: Nottingham Conference Close	Prof. Julie Jomeen

Poster Presentations
	Title	Authors
1.	"I wouldn't judge anyone . . . so long as you're stable": Young adults philosophies about criteria for becoming parents	Sarah Sangster
2.	A cross-sectional study assessing the effectiveness of the Whooley questions and Edinburgh Postnatal Depression Scale in identifying depression in pregnancy (WENDY study)	Sheila O'Connor
3.	A narrative account of the postnatal experiences of mothers with babies on Neonatal Unit	Lowri Hansford
4.	A national survey of Canadians' attitudes towards midwifery	Sarah Sangster
5.	An expressive writing intervention to reduce mental health problems in mothers of very premature infants	Dr Antje Horsch
6.	Antenatal coordinated care's impact on pregnant women with affective or anxiety disorders and their infants	Danae Panagiotou
7.	British media constructions of surrogate motherhood in the United Kingdom	Prof. Olga van den Akker, Ben Hunt and Isatou Camara
8.	Confident Birthing: A qualitative study exploring women's perceptions of confidence for birth	Emily Young
9.	Have I got PND? A thematic analysis of an online forum for antenatal/postnatal depression	Donna Moore
10.	Internal consistency and convergent validity of the Spanish version of the Prenatal Distress Questionnaire	Rafa Caparros-Gonzalez
11.	It's all in the way you ask: Questionnaire Order Effects and Societal Approval for Abortion	Kirstian Gibson
12.	Peer Support Intervention for Mothers with Postnatal Depression	Dr Fiona Cust
13.	Pregnancy and Borderline Personality Disorder	Polly Sands
14.	The Birth Satisfaction Scale-Revised (BSS-R) in a US population: Measurement characteristics and transferability of the birth satisfaction concept across distinct health economies	Prof. Colin Martin
15.	The Caregiving Experiences Questionnaire: A Cross Cultural Validation	Jessica Brennan
16.	The development of the Enhancing Decision-making and Assessment in Midwifery (EDAM) assessment tool: An International study	Prof. Colin Martin
17.	The effect of culture and early maternal characteristics on later child regulation of frustration	Laura Bozicevic
18.	The Presentation and Validation of the City Baby Face Database	Rebecca Webb
19.	They're just weird: Young adults' views of the childfree	Kirstian Gibson
20.	Women's negotiation of birth-related stigma	Melanie Bayly
21.	The Impact of maternal wellbeing in pregnancy on the behaviour and development of children in the Isle of Man	Parishma Guttoo